

Sandbar Willow Shrubland (SWL)

The Sandbar Willow Shrubland (SWL) map class represents the Sandbar Willow Shrubland plant community (CEGL008562). This type is an early successional stage existing on recently flooded riparian areas. Although rare within EFMO, SWL is relatively common along the Mississippi River, forming dense stands on alluvial sands where flooding is common in the spring.

